People will not look forward to posterity who never look backward to their ancestors.
Edmund Burke

If your family tree is a few branches short of full bloom and the ship manifest in your hand says your ancestors left from the old Austro-Hungarian Empire, Banat area, around the town of Temeswar, you might want to book a plane ticket to the nowadays Romania, Banat area, town of Timisoara, and visit the land of your fathers.

And because when you search for ancestors, you find great friends, I, Alexandra, the girl with the red umbrella, tour guide and passionate library worm, will be honored to help you on your quest to find your roots in the area of Banat.

With the help of my experienced team, the following services are available upon and prior to your arrival to Romania:

- Data acquisition: civil status documents, citizenship collections, censuses, passport list
- Data processing: family trees and finding living relatives
- Translation and interpretation services (English, Spanish and Romanian).
- Guided tours of "the then": traditional villages, religious monuments, cemeteries, and "the now": modern day towns, culture and nightlife.

Altogether, a successful blend of history, gastronomy and sightseeing, which will make for an entertaining, yet spiritual trip for you and your family.

Because family is forever,

follow me!
